At the time of the 2010 Census, there were 313 persons living in “group quarters.” This type of household is defined as places where individuals live or stay in a group living arrangement owned or managed by an organization that provides housing or services for residents, such as medical care. Group quarters also include places like college residence halls, military barracks, or correctional facilities. Between 2000 and 2010, the number of persons living in group quarters increased by 5.4 percent, as shown in Table II.23.3, below.

In the 1980, 1990, and 2000 decennial censuses, the Census Bureau released several tabulations in addition to the full SF1 100 percent count data including the one-in-six SF3 sample. These additional samples, such as the SF3, asked supplementary questions regarding income and household attributes that were not asked in the 100 percent count. In the 2010 decennial census, the Census Bureau did not collect additional sample data, such as the SF3, and thus many important housing and income concepts are not available in the 2010 census.

To study these important concepts the Census Bureau conducts the American Community Survey. The Census Bureau quantifies the results as one-, three- and five year rolling averages. The one-year sample only includes responses from the year the survey was implemented and is only applicable to communities of at least 60,000 people. The 3-year American Community Survey creates a rolling average over a three year period for communities of 20,000 or more. The five year American Community Survey creates a rolling average for a five year period and the results are available for much smaller areas. The data presented below are from the five year rolling average.

Table II.23.4, below, shows data on household type by tenure in the 2011 5-year ACS data. Household type is broken down by family households and non-family households. In 2011, there were an estimated 1,968 family households, of which 1,662 housed married couple families and 306 housed “other families.” “Other family” is defined as either a male householder with no wife present, of whom there were 107 families, or a female householder with no husband present, of which there were 199 families. There were also an estimated 976 “non-family households,” which refers to households of unrelated people or one person living alone. When compared to the state, the percentage of family households in Weston County was 66.8 percent, which compared to the statewide rate of 66.1 percent. Of the family households in Weston County, 84.5 percent were married households, which compared to 80.5 percent in the State of Wyoming.

Economics

The HUD estimated MFI for Weston County was $67,400 in 2013.¹⁶⁰ This rate compares to Wyoming’s MFI of $70,000. Diagram II.23.1, below, illustrates the estimated MFI for 2000 through 2013.

Labor force and employment statistics were derived from Bureau of Labor Statistics (BLS) data. Weston County’s labor force, defined as the number of persons working or actively seeking work, increased by 25 persons, from 3,297 in 2011 to 3,322 in 2012. Employment increased by 48 persons; unemployment decreased by 23 persons; and the unemployment rate, the number of unemployed persons as a percentage of the labor force, decreased from 5.8 percent in 2011 to 5.1 in 2012, as shown on the following page in Diagram II.23.2.

¹⁶⁰ Starting from the year 2003, HUD MFI estimates were re-benchmarked using 2000 Census income limits, hence the unusual increase in estimates compared to earlier years.

The BLS, in conjunction with the State Employment Security Agencies (SESAs), produces the Quarterly Census of Employment and Wages (QCEW), which reports monthly data on employment and quarterly data on wages and number of business establishments. QCEW employment data represent the number of workers who worked during or received pay for the pay period. Members of the armed forces, the self-employed, proprietors, domestic workers, and unpaid family workers are not included in QCEW estimates. As shown in Table II.23.20, below, annual total monthly employment increased by 1.46 percent between 2011 and 2012, from a total of 2,260 to 2,293 workers.

The Bureau of Economic Analysis (BEA) measures employment, defined as the total number of full- and part-time jobs by place of work. In 2011, the most recent year for which data are available, Weston County recorded 5,341 jobs. Total real personal income, comprising all wage and salary earnings, proprietorship income, dividends, interest, rents, and transfer payments, adjusted for place of residence, was $356,755,000, and real per capita income was $50,191 in 2011. Average earnings per job in the county was $39,474 in 2011. These data are presented in full in Volume II. Technical Appendix.

Housing

According to the Wyoming cost of living index, average apartment rent in Weston County increased from $572 to $578 between fourth quarter 2011 and fourth quarter 2012. Detached single-family home rents increased by 0.2 percent, rents for mobile homes on a lot increased by 0.5 percent, and rents for mobile home lots decreased by 2.8 percent.

Weston County rental prices experienced average annualized increases of 2.7 percent for apartments, 3.4 percent for houses, 2.8 percent for mobile homes plus a lot, and 1.9 percent for mobile home lots since fourth quarter 1986 through fourth quarter 2012. These figures compare to state average annualized increases in rental prices of 3.1 percent for apartments, 3.8 percent for houses, 3.4 percent for mobile homes plus a lot, and 3.0 percent for mobile home lots over the same period. Table II.23.23, at right, presents the Weston County data for each rental type.¹⁶¹

The Census Bureau reports building permit authorizations and “per unit” valuation of building permits by county annually. Single-family construction usually represents most residential development in the county. Single-family building permit authorizations in Weston County decreased from 4 to zero.

The real value of single-family building permits in real 2012 dollars, fluctuated from a high of $162,200 in 2002 to a low of $26,700 in 2001. Additional details of permit activity and per unit valuations are given in Table II.23.24, on the following page.

Diagram II.23.3, on the following page, shows the historical vacancy rate for Weston County and Wyoming. As can be seen, the vacancy rate in Weston County has been volatile over the 13 year period, moving above and below the statewide rate, with several periods matching the statewide average. In the most recent survey, the vacancy rate spiked above the statewide rate .

¹⁶²Those signified as a in the “year” column of Table II.23.10 are conducted in June/July of each year. Those signified as b are conducted each November/December. Conducting the surveys in June and December of each year allows one to view the prospective seasonality of vacancy rates as well as year-to-year changes.

Diagram II.23.4, below, shows the average rent of single-family and apartment units in Weston County. In the first half of 2013, average rents for single-family units increased to $722 and average rents for apartments rose to $458.

Table II.23.27, on the following page, shows the amount of total and vacant units with their associated vacancy rates. At the time of the survey, there were an estimated 42 single family units in Weston County, with 9 of them available. This translates into a single family vacancy rate of 21.4% in Weston County, which compares to a rate of 4.04% for the State of Wyoming. There were 68 apartment units reported in the survey, with 2 of them available, which resulted in a vacancy rate of 2.9%. This compares to a statewide vacancy rate of 5.91% for apartment units across the state.

The fiscal year 2013 Housing Needs Assessment (HNA) Survey, conducted primarily over the phone by the Partnership using a sample from data provided by the WYDOT, had 15 respondents in Weston County. Of the incoming persons who were unsatisfied with their current housing, 100.0 percent said they were seeking to rent. Of those seeking to rent an existing home, 100.0 percent anticipated spending more than above $850. Additional survey data are presented in Volume II. Technical Appendix.

The Wyoming Community Development Authority (WCDA) began purchasing home loans in 1978 to provide affordable housing in Wyoming. There were a total of 389 loans purchased in Weston County between 1979 and 2013, with two occurring in fiscal 2013. The average home size over the period was 1,293 square feet and 1,197 square feet in fiscal 2013. For homes receiving a WCDA loan in fiscal 2013, the average year a home was built was 1953. The average household income in fiscal 2013 in nominal terms, without the effects of inflation being taken into consideration, was $46,795. The average purchase price in fiscal 2013 was $87,500. In fiscal 2013, 50.0 percent had female head of households. Fiscal year data for the entire operating history of the WCDA can be found in Volume II. Technical Appendix.

Housing Problems

While the ACS data do not report significant details regarding the physical condition of housing units, some information can be derived from data relating to overcrowding, incomplete plumbing or kitchen facilities, and cost burdens.

Overcrowding is defined as having from 1.1 to 1.5 people per room per residence, with severe overcrowding defined as having more than 1.5 people per room. According to 2011 five-year ACS data, 18 or 0.6 percent of households in Weston County were overcrowded and another 39 or 1.3 percent of units were severely overcrowded, as shown in Table II.23.26, below. This housing problem was far more prevalent in renter households as compared to owner households.

Incomplete plumbing and kitchen facilities are another indicator of potential housing problems. According to the Census Bureau, a housing unit is classified as lacking complete plumbing facilities when any of the following are not present: piped hot and cold water, a flush toilet, and a bathtub or shower. Likewise, a unit is categorized as deficient when any of the following are missing from the kitchen: a sink with piped hot and cold water, a range or cook top and oven, and a refrigerator.

At the time of the 2011 five-year ACS, a total of 171 units or 4.9 percent of all housing units in Weston County were lacking complete kitchen facilities. This compared to 2.9 percent of households statewide without complete kitchen facilities. These data are presented in Table II.23.37, at right.

Percent Lacking	4.9%	2.9%

At the time of the 2011 ACS, a total of 74 units or 2.1 percent of all housing units in Weston County were lacking complete plumbing facilities. This compared to 2.4 percent of households lacking complete plumbing facilities in Wyoming. These data are presented in Table II.23.38, at right.

The third type of housing problem reported in the 2011 ACS data is cost burden. Cost burden is defined as gross housing costs that range from 30.0 to 50.0 percent of gross household income; severe cost burden is defined as gross housing costs that exceed 50.0 percent of gross household income. For homeowners, gross housing costs include property taxes, insurance, energy payments, water and sewer service, and refuse collection. If the homeowner has a mortgage, the determination also includes principal and interest payments on the mortgage loan. For renters, this figure represents monthly rent and selected electricity and natural gas energy charges.

In Weston County, 10.6 percent of households had a cost burden and 5.5 percent of households had a severe cost burden, which compared to 13.9 percent with a cost burden and 9.5 percent with a severe cost burden in the State of Wyoming. Roughly 15.2 percent of homeowners with a mortgage in Weston County experienced a cost burden and 6.0 percent experienced a severe cost burden, while 3.9 percent of renters had a cost burden and 9.8 percent had a severe cost burden, as shown in Table II.23.39, on the following page.
