

Scott Hoversland, Executive Director
WGDA
(307)265-0603

For Immediate Release

WGDA Announces New Board Member

CASPER, WY- Wyoming Community Development Authority (WGDA) welcomes newly appointed Board member, Pete Illoway.

Illoway was appointed to serve on the WGDA Board beginning March 1, 2019.

Illoway served in the Wyoming Legislature for 14 years and has worked for both private and public entities. Before coming to WGDA, he served on the Board of the Wyoming Business Council for six years. Illoway is currently self-employed, working as a Government Public Affairs Consultant and Lobbyist.

Illoway is actively apart of 14 organizations. He is Board and Executive Committee Member of Wyoming Taxpayers Association, Board Secretary and former Board President of Cheyenne Regional Airport, former Vice President of Cheyenne Chamber of Commerce, member and former Board President of Cheyenne Country Club, member and former Vice President of Cheyenne LEADS, Benefactor member of National Rifle Association, Military Affairs Committee and former Chair Wrangler member, Public Relations Committee and Heels member of Cheyenne Frontier Days, Advisory of First Interstate Bank, and Emeritus Civic Leader Member for Air Force Space Command and Air Force Global Strike Command. Member of Petroleum Association of Wyoming, Wyoming State Shooting Association, Air Force Association Cowboy Chapter, and St. Mark's Episcopal Church.

Illoway replaces outgoing WGDA Board member, Rob Boner.

The WGDA Board of Directors consists of Chairman Judy Lane of Cheyenne, Vice Chairman George Parks of Cheyenne, Treasurer/Secretary Susan Anderson of Casper, Governor Mark Gordon, State Treasurer Curt Meier, Kari Cooper of Jackson, Tony Ross of Cheyenne, and Pete Illoway of Cheyenne. WGDA Executive Director, Scott Hoversland, serves as an ex-officio member.

For more information, contact the WGDA at (307) 265-0603.

###