

Wyoming Community Development Authority
"Financing Affordable Housing in Wyoming"

Dear Borrower:

Due to privacy laws, we are unable to give information regarding WCDA mortgage loans to anyone other than the borrower. We sometimes find this can be a hindrance when only one spouse has signed the Note and Mortgage. If it is your desire that anyone else have access to specific information regarding your loan, (i.e., spouse, parent, child) please complete the short form below and return it to our office. We'll attach it to your file and make a notation in our computer system so that if it becomes necessary, we can give this person information. I further state that the person listed below may use my personal checking to make phone payments on my loan.

Upon death of borrower this Authorization is null and void.

I, _____, do hereby authorize the Wyoming Community
