FEDERAL HOUSING ADMINISTRATION

SHOULD I BE AWARE OF ANYTHING ELSE?

Beware of foreclosure prevention scams! You may be approached by organizations with official sounding names offering a quick fix to your mortgage problems. They often charge hefty fees or require that you “temporarily” sign over your deed to them. Remember — solutions that sound too good to be true usually are. These precautions will help you avoid being taken by a scam artist:

1. Never sign any papers you don't fully understand.
2. Check with a lawyer, your lender or trusted advisor, or a HUD-approved housing counselor before entering into any deal involving a loan assumption, contract of sale or a transfer of the deed to your home.
3. If you can't afford your current mortgage, don't be talked into refinancing into a new loan with a higher payment.

To find a HUD counselor in your area call:

1-800-569-4287 or TDD 1-800-877-8339.

WHAT IS FHA?

The Federal Housing Administration is part of the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD). FHA provides mortgage insurance to approved lenders who in turn offer mortgage loan financing to individuals and families throughout the United States and territories. The FHA mortgage insurance enables approved mortgages to provide home loans to eligible borrowers who might not otherwise qualify for other mortgage loan financing. FHA borrowers are often first-time homebuyers, moderate income families or folks who can't afford a large downpayment.

HELP! I CAN'T MAKE MY MORTGAGE PAYMENT.

Every day thousands of people like you have trouble making the next mortgage payment. Though things may seem hopeless, help is available. However, you need to take the first step! If you ignore the problem you may lose your home to foreclosure, possibly affecting your ability to qualify for credit or to rent another home.

WHAT SHOULD I DO?

1. Contact your lender right away. You can find a contact number on your mortgage statement. When you call, be prepared to explain:

- ▶ Why you are unable to make your payment.
- ▶ Whether the problem is temporary or permanent.
- ▶ Details about your income, expenses, and other assets like cash in the bank.

2. If you are uncomfortable talking to your lender, a HUD-approved housing counseling agency can help you understand your options. These services are free of charge.

3. Open all of the mail you receive from your lender. It contains valuable information about repayment options. Later mail may have important legal notices. Failing to read the mail will not prevent a foreclosure action.

4. Look for ways to increase the amount you have available to make your mortgage payments. Can you cancel cable TV, pack lunches, or get a part-time job? While these actions may not replace all of your lost income, they send a strong message to your lender that you are serious about keeping your home.

NOTHING IS WORSE THAN DOING NOTHING!

WHAT OPTIONS WILL HELP ME KEEP MY HOME?

FHA provides, as part of its insurance contract with lenders, loss mitigation actions the lender must evaluate and take, when appropriate, to reduce financial losses on loans in default. Your lender needs information from you to fully evaluate these options. If you want to keep your home, talk to your lender about available workout options for home retention. While the options listed here are for borrowers with FHA-insured loans, most lenders offer similar workout plans designed to help you keep your home.

Special Forbearance. Your lender may provide for a temporary reduction or suspension of your payments to allow you time to overcome the problem that reduced your income. Then you may be offered a payment plan so you can pay back the missed payments a little at a time until you are caught up. An extended forbearance period may be provided to unemployed borrowers who are actively seeking employment.

Mortgage Modification. A modification is a permanent change to your loan through which the overdue payments may be added to your loan balance, the interest rate may be changed or the number of years you have to pay off the loan may be extended.

Partial Claim. In a Partial Claim, a borrower receives a second loan in an amount necessary to bring the delinquent loan current. The loan is interest free and does not need to be repaid until you pay off your first mortgage or sell your house. This option is only available to borrowers with FHA-insured loans. However, if you have a conventional loan, ask your lender if they offer an “advance claim.”

FHA-Home Affordable Modification Program

(FHA-HAMP). This option combines an enhanced partial claim with a loan modification. Under the FHA-HAMP, the partial claim loan will not only include any amounts necessary to bring your mortgage current but may also include an amount to reduce your existing loan balance by up to 30%. The reduced loan balance will then be modified to lower your monthly mortgage payment to an affordable level. As described above, the partial claim loan is interest free, but must be repaid when you pay off your first mortgage or sell your house.

To qualify for any of these options, you will need to provide your lender with current information about your income and expenses. Also, your lender may require that you agree to a payment plan for three or more months to demonstrate your commitment before you are approved for a modification or partial claim.

WHAT OPTIONS DO I HAVE IF I CAN'T KEEP MY HOME?

If your income or expenses have changed so much that you are not able to continue paying the mortgage even under a workout plan offered by your lender, you should consider the options below.

Pre-foreclosure sale. With your lender's permission you can offer your house for sale and sell it at fair market value even if the amount you receive from the sale is less than the amount you owe. If you meet certain conditions, you may be eligible to receive relocation expenses.

Deed-in-lieu of foreclosure. As a last resort, you may be able to voluntarily give your property back to your lender. If you leave the property clean and undamaged you may be eligible to receive relocation expenses.

There could be income tax consequences to any plan that reduces the amount of debt you owe so check with a tax advisor before accepting these workout options.

Contact FHA

Struggling homeowners with FHA-insured loans can get assistance by contacting HUD's National Servicing Center at (877) 622-8525. Persons with hearing or speech impairments may reach this number via TDD/TTY by calling (800) 877-8339.

INFORMATION REGARDING THE FOLLOWING LOSS MITIGATION

OPTIONS

REPAYMENT PLANS:

* Credit Reporting: Please note that we will continue to report the delinquency status of your loan to credit reporting agencies as well as your entry into a Payment Plan in accordance with the requirements of the Fair Credit Reporting Act and the Consumer Data Industry Association requirements. CREDIT SCORING COMPANIES GENERALLY CONSIDER THE ENTRY INTO A PLAN WITH MODIFIED PAYMENTS AS AN INCREASED CREDIT RISK. AS A RESULT, ENTERING INTO A PLAN WITH MODIFIED PAYMENTS MAY ADVERSELY AFFECT YOUR CREDIT SCORE, PARTICULARLY IF YOU ARE CURRENT ON YOUR MORTGAGE OR OTHERWISE HAVE A GOOD CREDIT SCORE.

PRE-FORECLOSURE (SHORT SALE) OR DEED IN LIEU OF FORECLOSURE:

* Credit Reporting: Please note that we will report to the credit bureaus that a short sale or deed in lieu was accepted by W.C.D.A. after proper documents are filed. AS A RESULT, THIS WILL ADVERSELY AFFECT YOUR CREDIT SCORE, PARTICULARLY IF YOU ARE CURRENT ON YOUR MORTGAGE OR OTHERWISE HAVE A GOOD CREDIT SCORE.

* Most insurers require a borrower must be in default before W.C.D.A. can consider a Pre-foreclosure Sale (short sale) or Deed in Lieu of foreclosure.

* On FHA loans this will be reported on their CAIVRS. Borrower(s) will not be able to obtain a FHA loan for a minimum of three (3) years.

* Some Insurers may require Borrower(s) to make cash contributions.

* Please be aware that in the event that WCDA forgives your debt, or any portion of it, there may be tax consequences to you as a result. You should consult with your tax advisor about any such potential tax consequences. WCDA does not provide any tax advice so we cannot answer any questions about tax consequences that you may have.

SERVICE MEMBERS and FEDERAL EMPLOYEES

* All Service members and Federal employees should obtain guidance from your employer regarding the potential impact on security clearance and employment.0

Public reporting burden for this collection of information is estimated to average 15 minutes per response, including the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. This information is required to obtain benefits. HUD may not collect this information, and you are not required to complete this form, unless it displays a currently valid OMB control number.

Section 1064 of the Stewart B. McKinney Homeless Assistance Amendments Act of 1988 authorizes the Secretary to pay an insurance claim that “bridges the gap” between the fair market value proceeds from the HUD-approved third party sale of a property. The respondents are lenders, counselors, and homeowners who are attempting to sell their properties prior to foreclosure. The Privacy Act of 1974 pledges assurances of confidentiality to respondents. HUD generally discloses this data only in response to a Freedom of Information request.

Homeowners who have defaulted on their mortgages often attempt to sell their properties in order to avoid foreclosure and to protect their credit standing. However, because of declining property values in certain areas, some homeowners cannot realize enough from the sale to pay off their mortgage balances.

Therefore, the Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) has implemented the Pre-foreclosure Sale (PFS) Program. This program permits homeowners to attempt to sell their home for a fair market sale price, which can be less than the amount owed to the lender. HUD then reimburses the lender for the difference between the sale proceeds and the outstanding mortgage indebtedness.

Homeowners who sell their properties under the PFS Program may also benefit by avoiding the effect of a foreclosure on their credit rating.

Upon review of the homeowner's financial situation, the lender will determine the type of PFS process for which the homeowner qualifies: (1) Standard PFS, (2) Streamlined PFS, or (3) Streamlined PFS for Servicemembers with Permanent Change of Station Orders.

Once the type of PFS has been determined, there are certain criteria which must be met before the homeowner may be permitted to pursue a PFS.

Homeowners must engage the services of a real estate broker/agent. The real estate broker/agent selected must have no conflict of interest with the homeowner, lender, appraiser, or buyer associated with the PFS transaction. The transaction must be between two unrelated parties and be characterized by a selling price and other conditions that would prevail in a typical real estate sales transaction. If the homeowner secures a sales contract prior to receiving the Approval to Participate, the homeowner may submit the contract to the lender for consideration of PFS Program approval.

Owner-occupant homeowners who are not required to make minimum cash reserve contributions and successfully sell their properties using this program are relieved of their mortgage obligation and may be entitled to a cash incentive up to $3,000. The homeowner may apply a portion or the entire amount of the $3,000 consideration to resolve junior liens and to offset the sales transaction costs not paid by HUD (including a home warranty plan fee, costs of optional repairs, and buyer's closing expenses). Eligible homeowners are permitted at closing to receive the remaining amount from the aforementioned $3,000 consideration. This remaining amount may only be used for transition or relocation assistance.

If, after a good faith effort, an acceptable purchase offer is not obtained within the allotted time, the lender may accept a Deed-in-Lieu (DIL) of Foreclosure from the homeowner. While a DIL is less desirable than a PFS on a homeowner's credit record, it is still looked upon more favorably by creditors than a foreclosure.

By calling this number, _____, the homeowner will receive further details from their lender about the procedure and whether they may qualify. Please NOTE that the homeowner is under no obligation to make this call.

Legal Rights and Protections Under the SCRA

Servicemembers on “active duty” or “active service,” or a spouse or dependent of such a servicemember may be entitled to certain legal protections and debt relief pursuant to the Servicemembers Civil Relief Act (50 USC §§ 3901-4043) (SCRA).

Who May Be Entitled to Legal Protections Under the SCRA?

- Regular members of the U.S. Armed Forces (Army, Navy, Air Force Marine Corps and Coast Guard).
- Reserve and National Guard personnel who have been activated and are on Federal active duty
- National Guard personnel under a call or order to active duty for more than 30 consecutive days under section 502(f) of title 32, United States Code, for purposes of responding to a national emergency declared by the President and supported by Federal funds
- Active service members of the commissioned corps of the Public Health Service and the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration.
- Certain United States citizens serving with the armed forces of a nation with which the United States is allied in the prosecution of a war or military action.

What Legal Protections Are Servicemembers Entitled To Under the SCRA?

- The SCRA states that a debt incurred by a servicemember, or servicemember and spouse jointly, prior to entering military service shall not bear interest at a rate above 6 % during the period of military service and one year thereafter, in the case of an obligation or liability consisting of a mortgage, trust deed, or other security in the nature of a mortgage, or during the period of military service in the case of any other obligation or liability.
- The SCRA states that in a legal action to enforce a debt against real estate that is filed during, or within one year after the servicemember’s military service, a court may stop the proceedings for a period of time, or adjust the debt. In addition, the sale, foreclosure, or seizure of real estate shall not be valid if it occurs during or within one year after the servicemember’s military service unless the creditor has obtained a valid court order approving the sale, foreclosure, or seizure of the real estate.
- The SCRA contains many other protections besides those applicable to home loans.

How Does A Servicemember or Dependent Request Relief Under the SCRA?

- In order to request relief under the SCRA from loans with interest rates above 6% a servicemember or spouse must provide a written request to the lender, together with a copy of the servicemember’s military orders. Wyoming Community Development Authority P.O. Box 10100 Casper, WY 82602 1-800-273-4635.
- There is no requirement under the SCRA, however, for a servicemember to provide a written notice or a copy of a servicemember’s military orders to the lender in connection with a foreclosure or other debt enforcement action against real estate. Under these circumstances, lenders should inquire about the military status of a person by searching the Department of Defense’s Defense Manpower Data Center’s website, contacting the servicemember, and examining their files for indicia of military service. Although there is no requirement for servicemembers to alert the lender of their military status in these situations, it still is a good idea for the servicemember to do so.

How Does a Servicemember or Dependent Obtain Information About the SCRA?

- Servicemembers and dependents with questions about the SCRA should contact their unit’s Judge Advocate, or their installation’s Legal Assistance Officer. A military legal assistance office locator for all branches of the Armed Forces is available at <http://legalassistance.law.af.mil/content/locator.php>
- “Military OneSource” is the U. S. Department of Defense’s information resource. If you are listed as entitled to legal protections under the SCRA (see above), please go to www.militaryonesource.mil/legal or call 1-800-342-9647 (toll free from the United States) to find out more information. Dialing instructions for areas outside the United States are provided on the website.

FORECLOSURE FRAUD NOTICE

Foreclosure fraud has become epidemic. Help stop foreclosure fraud.

Be suspicious of:

- Anyone that guarantees to stop foreclosure
- Pressures you to sign any agreement
- Tells you not to contact your mortgage company
- Wants to charge you up-front
- Tells you to make payments to them
- Offers to fill out the paperwork for you
- Tells you foreclosure “scams” are not real

There are reputable groups who can help and you will not be charged for their services.
